Sir

I am requested by Mr. William Mc Intire, to ask for an addition of 50 cents per day, to his pay. (Now $4.) Mr. M. is a very faithful & industrious meigher, keeps our gold accounts, & checks my reports.

Mr. A. E. Outerbridge does not make a similar request, but I would renew it, on his behalf, wishing to make his pay equal to that of Patterson DuBois, and to acknowledge the value of his services.

The reduction of my pay-roll by $5.50 a day, (on account of Mr. Salom & Mr. Brewster) seems to make this request reasonable & feasible.

Very respectfully N. E. DuBois

Sir

I am requested by Mr. William McIntire, to ask for an addition of 50 cents per day, to his pay. (Now $4.) Mr. M. is a very faithful & industrious weigher, keeps our gold accounts, & checks my reports.

Mr. A.E. Outerbridge does not make a similar request, but I would renew it, on his behalf, wishing to make his pay equal to that of Patterson Du Bois, and to acknowledge the value of his services.

The reduction of my pay-roll by $5.50 a day, (on account of Mr. Salom & Mr. Brewster) seems to make this request reasonable & feasible.

Very respectfully,
W.E. Du Bois
